

The Need for Investment

Repairing the fabric of the building

Renovating and increasing the number of toilets

Updating the ventilation, heating and other services around the building

Improving the technical installation in the main hall

Creating a more accessible and welcoming entrance

Creating better music facilities with improved sound proofing

Providing better backstage facilities

Improving access around the building and providing wheelchair access to every level

Refurbishing the art room and providing better lighting